

Please do not allow the use of cell phones inflight. As a flight attendant, this is a definite security issue, possibly allowing terrorist a way to communicate inflight. As a passenger, I cannot imagine sitting next to someone carrying on a conversation with a cell phone. The job of policing cell phone use will make an already tense environment explosive.